DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-24, drawn to a composition comprising nucleotide fragments encoding CD4, IgG3 and elements required form replicating and vectors, hosts, tissues and implants containing said compositions, classified in class 435, subclass 320.1.
- II. Claims 25-38, drawn to methods for treating infectious disease by administration of the nucleotide fragments of Group I, classified in class 514, subclass 44.

The inventions are distinct each from the other because of the following reasons:

Group I reads on twenty-five patentably distinct DNA constructs comprising one of unrelated SEQ ID numbers 2-26. Each sequence is patentably distinct because they are unrelated sequences. Should Group I be elected, Applicants must elect a single sequence for examination.

See Examination of Patent Applications Containing Nucleotide Sequences, 1192 O.G. 68

(November 19, 1996) e.g.

Nucleotide sequences encoding different proteins are structurally distinct chemical compounds and are unrelated to one another. These sequences are thus deemed to normally constitute independent and distinct inventions within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 121. Absent evidence to the contrary, each such nucleotide sequence is presumed to represent an independent and distinct invention, select to a restriction requirements pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 1121 and CFR 1.141 et seq. Nevertheless, to further aid the biotechnology industry to protecting its intellectual property without creating an undue burden on the Office, the Commissioner has decided sua sponte to partially waive the requirements of 37 CFR 1.141 et seq. and permit a reasonable number of such nucleotide sequences to be claimed in a single application.

It has been decided that, due to the high burden placed on the Office to search sequences, ONE sequence constitutes a reasonable number for examination purposes. Applicant is required to elect ONE independent and distinct sequence. Examination will be restricted to only the one elected sequence. The search of no more than one selected sequences may include the complements of the selected sequence and where appropriate, may include subsequences within the selected sequence (i.e. oligomeric probes and/or primers).

The compositions of Group I and the method of Group II are related as product and processes of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP 806.05 (h)). In the instant case, the compositions of Group I can be used for expressing protein in a cell or alternatively can be used in hybridization assays.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification Group I (435/320.1) vs. group II (514/44), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter. The searches required for different groups are not coextensive with one another. Therefore, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 1636

Applicant is reminded that upon cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
